

HIGH HOPES

Therapeutic Riding, Inc.

A Tradition of Excellence in Therapeutic Riding, Inc.

Position Announcement

High Hopes Therapeutic Riding, Inc. in Old Lyme, CT. is looking for a Part-time Speech and Language Specialist. Candidates should have knowledge of Hippotherapy or similar discipline, have experience working with pediatrics, (having worked with a variety of disabilities including Autism), and have a good working knowledge of horses and horsemanship.

This position will instruct approximately 5 hours each week, conduct assessments of new participants and ongoing evaluations of participants, and have other responsibilities as assigned including education and training of staff, volunteers and instructor trainees.

High Hopes is a forward thinking organization with immediate plans for developing our interdisciplinary team approach to therapeutic riding sessions. We need a strong team player who will bring the knowledge and skills of a licensed Speech and Language Therapist and NARHA Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructor to bear on the advancement of our program development.

This position is a regular part-time position with some benefits. Candidates should send a letter of inquiry with salary requirements and resume to Jeanna Pellino, Program Director at jpellino@highhopestr.org.
