501c3 Nonprofit Center

Four Star Charity through Charity Navigator

We offer...

Lectures by experienced professionals

Networking opportunities

A dynamic learning environment

This workshop offers opportunities beyond the PATH INTL ESMHL course and is designed for EAAT professionals seeking an interactive, hands-on, educational, networking experience. It will enhance their understanding of the benefits of Equine Assisted Learning and Equine Assisted Psychotherapy and present more tools for future lessons or sessions.

This workshop will include lecture discussion and hands on horse experience to:

- Expand your toolbox of mutually beneficial equine assisted activities that can be utilized in mental health and learning lessons or sessions
- Collaborate with other professionals to develop treatment and education goals and to design safe and effective lessons or sessions
- Discuss and select equines to work with different students/clients in sessions that we design and implement in the workshop, as well as selection of equines for particular clients/students at their centers
- Observe equine communication and discuss its use in equine assisted learning and therapy
- Explore language which can be utilized to describe equine assisted activities for marketing or recruitment efforts
