

Liz (Elizabeth) Doering

Liz is the owner of Sperry View Farm in Bethany, CT. Before spending 15 years in the Healthcare Insurance Industry, Liz received an undergraduate degree at Mt. Holyoke College, a Master's Degree in International Affairs from American University, and an MBA in Health Administration from Quinnipiac University. In 2012, Liz decided to follow a lifelong ambition of owning her own equestrian facility and purchased Sperry View Farm. She grew up in Pony Club where she stays active as a National Examiner and Chief Horse Management Judge as well as having served on multiple National Committees throughout the years. For the past four years, Liz has served as the President of the Connecticut Dressage Association (CDA). While remaining as the VP of CDA, Liz stepped down from the President's position in 2022 to continue her pursuit of her Dressage Technical Delegate's License through the United States Equestrian Federation (USDF). She is a USDF Bronze and Silver Medalist and continues to compete at the Intermediate I Level. Liz resides in Bethany, CT and Old Saybrook, CT.

Affiliation: Sperry View Farm

Address: 184 Sperry Rd, Bethany, CT 06524

Landon Potts

Landon is a self-employed attorney. In June 2010 she was admitted into the Connecticut Bar after receiving her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Connecticut School Of Law in 2009 and a Bachelor of Science in Business Management, Summa Cum Laude, from Quinnipiac University in 2005. In addition, Landon interned with the State of Connecticut Judicial Branch and Hubard, Samuels & Lewane where she mediated landlord/tenant disputes and assisted in trial preparation of felony criminal cases and personal injury cases respectively. Landon is very familiar with High Hopes. She was a program participant from early childhood through her teenage years, as well as High Hopes' Development Assistant from 2004-2006 and Administrative Assistant/Intern from 2002-2004. Landon was a Trustee on the Board of Living Rock Church in Killingworth from 2017-2020 and presently holds several leadership positions within the church. Landon resides in Essex, CT.

Address: 66 Ingham Hill Rd, Essex, CT 06426

Priya Tandon, MD, FACP

Priya is a Board-Certified Internal Medicine Specialist who has operated a private practice in Colchester, CT since March 2008. She is affiliated with Hartford Healthcare, William W. Backus Hospital. In addition, Priya is an Assistant Professor at Quinnipiac University (2013-Present) and was awarded the Excellence in Clinical Teaching Award at the Frank H. Netter MD School of Medicine in 2021. Priya earned her Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery at MS Ramaiah Medical College in Bangalore, India followed by Residencies at Coney Island Hospital, University of Connecticut Health Center, and Chief Medical Resident at Hartford Hospital. Her Fellowship in Hematology and Oncology was completed at University of Connecticut Health Center. In addition to Priya's 30 years of experience in the medical field, she volunteers with SNEHA (President), a non-profit organization for domestic violence against South East Asian origin, American College of Physicians Health Care Policy and Advocacy Committee, American Medical Association – Private Practice Physician Society, and Kodaikanal Friends International Board. Priya holds a special affection toward High Hopes – her daughter, Shruti, rode with High Hopes for several years beginning when she was three years old. Priya and her husband, Michael Rajkumar, reside in Colchester.

Affiliation: Private Practice

Address: 9 Founders Way, Colchester, CT 06415